

1895

December 19th.
11 P.M.

Dearest,

I forgot to give you the little package for Harold. Hope it will not trouble you to get it
to him - cheer up;
only two hours - dear;
all these do their work
and they can't hold faster time back -

If you should send me word tomorrow I shall

you could not come
to Glyde for me,
remember I shall expect
you to supper instead

Now goodnight.

True heart

A Question of Honesty

How many men do you suppose can tell the value of an Old Violin? Not 1 in 1,000! Consequently an investor will show good sense by buying from a house whose guarantee is unassailable.

An assortment of Old Violins will be sent with privilege of examination, to reliable people in any part of the country. Particulars will be found in our brochure "Old Violins," mailed free.

Piano Values with most people are hard to ascertain; therefore it is safer to trade with a house whose age and reputation for honest dealing are known of men.....

We are now receiving our new stock direct from the great Eastern factories of Knabe, Fischer, Hazelton, Blasius, Krakauer and others, and invite your inspection.....
